

“Eyes to See the Risen Christ”

Acts 2:24-36

November 5, 2023

QUICK REVIEW

Two awesome sights to see in the Psalms:

- 1. God raised Christ from the deepest grave (2:24-32; Psalm 16:8-11)
- 2. God raised Christ to the highest throne (2:33-36; Psalm 110:1)

What else does God want to help us see?

- 1. He will _____ our hands in this life.
- 2. He will _____ our bodies in the next life.
- 3. He will put _____ in our hearts through the span of life.

Was any point in this weekend’s message or portion of Scripture particularly challenging, encouraging or helpful for you?

Why did God want you to hear this message now?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Peter used Scripture to persuade Israel to believe in Christ. How can you make use to the Bible as well to share the truth about Jesus? How would you go about that with people who have a background in the church and with those who do not?
2. God gives light to the eyes, not only helping us to see truth, but causing truth to the bring life and joy to the soul (See Psalm 13). How can viewing the resurrection and ascension in the Bible convey living hope to hurting hearts?
3. What means has God given you to see the Lord Jesus Christ “always before you” (Acts 2:25)? How can you make use of these provisions?

Luke 24:25-27

Colossians 2:11-15

I Corinthians 11:23-26

Colossians 3:16

4. Reflect on I Thessalonians 5:16-18. When should we rejoice in the Lord? How was David an example of this?
5. In Acts 2, we see Peter in the very place of his previous failure and collapse. This time He is there in the power of the Holy Spirit. Can you think of any places where you crumbled in the past? What would it look like to return to that place in the power of the Spirit?