DIGGING DEEPER

1. What physical maladies have you experienced in this life? How do the healing miracles of the New Testament minister to you personally in view of those illnesses and injuries?
2. Read Psalm 103:1-5. Looking at Psalms like this, and the miracle accounts of the Bible, should we expect full healing in this life?
3. Reflect on Zephaniah 3:16-19. What is the significance of humiliation and shame being transformed into renown? How is the Acts 3 miracle an example of that?
4. This miracle was performed in the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Why might that have stirred animosity in the historic context?
5. This man asked for alms, but he received the use of his legs, something far better. When have you requested help from God, only to have him answer in a way that was better than your request?
