

“The Demise of a King”

Acts 12:20-25

November 24, 2024

SERMON REVIEW

To help our hearts glorify God alone, we can ask...

1. Am I too easily _____? (Acts 12:20)
2. Do I attract excessive attention to _____? (Acts 12:21-22)

Was any point in this weekend’s message or portion of Scripture particularly challenging, encouraging or helpful for you?

Why did God want you to hear this message now?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Reflect carefully on I Chronicles 29:10-12. Why is it vitally important that God alone be given the honor and glory? How does this encourage you?
2. What are some ways human beings siphon the honor due to God alone?
3. Read Romans 1:18-23. How does this passage indict human beings of the same sin of Herod Agrippa? How is this especially relevant with the Thanksgiving holiday approaching?
4. One way self-glory reveals itself is with unrighteous anger. It's when we are terribly upset at other people for not regarding us how we want them to. When have you dealt with this in your life? How do these passages help us with this?

Proverbs 19:11

Colossians 3:5-10

James 1:19-20

5. Another way self-glory reveals itself is by drawing excessive attention to ourselves. What are some ways human beings doing this?
6. Is it wrong to accept compliments or appreciation from people? Is it possible to receive such gestures and still glorify God? If so, how?
