SERMON REVIEW

To bring us to repentance, we are allowed to see...

- 1. The city’s _____ (1:21-23)
- 2. The LORD’s _____ (1:24-26)
- 3. The prophet’s _____ (1:27-31)

Was any point in this weekend’s message or portion of Scripture particularly challenging, encouraging or helpful for you?

Why did God want you to hear this message now?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. The language of adultery and harlotry are used throughout the Bible in reference to the practice of idolatry. Is the worship of graven images the only form of idolatry? What do we learn from these passages about additional forms of idol worship?

Romans 1:24-25

Philippians 3:17-18

Colossians 3:5-6

2. The Apostle James picks up on this propensity toward idolatry even in the early church, warning against spiritual adultery. What caution do you receive from James 4:1-10? Where might you be prone toward the love of earthly things above the Creator?

3. The Lord will get personally involved to heal Jerusalem of its whoredom (Is. 1:24-26). What hope and encouragement to you receive from the promise of God's involvement in Ezekiel 26:25-27?

4. Redemption is an act of God delivering a person from a desperate situation. Reflect on the teaching about this gracious redemption in the following passages. What are we redeemed from? How are we redeemed? What are we redeemed for?

Ephesians 1:3-14

Titus 2:11-15
