

“Wisdom for the Wavering”
Psalm 1:1-6
January 8, 2023

Questions for Application and Fellowship

SERMON REVIEW

To keep your heart from wavering,

1. Beware the way of _____.
2. Pursue the path of _____.

Was any point in this weekend’s message or portion of Scripture particularly challenging, encouraging, or helpful for you?

Why did God want you to hear this message now?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Where do you see Christians wavering in relation to core biblical teachings? Where have you been tempted to vacillate yourself?
2. How does Romans 12:1-2 reinforce the message of Psalm 1? What parallels do you see? How does this speak into your life today?
3. Reflect on Joshua 1:7-9. What similarities are found between Joshua 1:7-9 and Psalm 1:1-4?
4. How might have a man like Joshua, a man of action loaded with responsibility, have found time for meditation? How can you go about the practice of meditating on scripture?
5. God's word brings both conviction (Luke 18:13; John 16:8-11) and delight (Psalm 119:46-48) to the child of God. Share an experience of both with your group. How have you experienced the conviction and delight of God's truth?